++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry but rather cloudy.

Today:
A few bright spells possible but plenty of cloud too, best chance of sunny spells for Orkney. Largely dry but some drizzle from thicker cloud, a fresh breeze for Shetland. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tonight:
Possibly a few sunny spells for the evening but becoming cloudy again overnight with the risk of some patchy drizzle. Fresh northwesterly breeze continuing again. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Wednesday:
Similar to the last few days with some thicker cloud giving a few spots of drizzle. Cloud unlikely to clear completely but perhaps a few brighter spells. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Staying largely dry but still a lot of cloud around. Some patchy mist and drizzle at times. Mostly light winds. Saturday marks a bit of a change to southerly winds.
